

Tools needed
10mm Socket and ratchet

Start by unclipping the harness connector located under the vehicle attached to the bumper.

Remove the two 10mm bolts holding the light in. remove the light by pulling straight out.

After removing the taillight from the vehicle pull the harness straight out.

Bolt the new light back in place and connect the harness located under the vehicle. Test all functions of the light before operating on public highway.