

Remember Those Commercials?

Every Sunny Delight® commercial started off exactly the same: three guys in the back yard and one of them says, "Dude I am sooooo thirsty, what do you got to drink in the fridge?" So excited, they run to the fridge, pull open the door and, "Well, we've got some soda, some Purple Stuff, and Sunny D®!" Of course they were going to pick Sunny D® in the commercial, but if you came to our house and those were the only choices we had, the only clear choice is that we really shouldn't be friends. If anyone was like, "What do you got to drink?" and we replied "Well, we've got some ketchup, some gravy, toxic waste, or Sunny D®," you'd say, "Is there any lead in your water, because I hate all four of those." Personally, we prefer the Purple Stuff. Purple is awesome! Even saying the word "purple" makes you want to smile. When we say "purple," the first thing that comes to mind is that big grape from the Fruit Of The Loom commercials that was always so damn happy. At Chemical Guys, we like to have fun and be kids. Even though we all watched plenty of commercials as kids, the Sunny D® commercial was one that stuck in our minds! Maybe it's because we all kind of wondered what if the kids just chugged the purple stuff in the fridge. We love everything about grape drinks and grape sodas, especially that sweet grapey scent. That's why we developed Purple Stuff Air Freshener & Odor Eliminator. It smells like a delicious grape soda on a warm summer day. When you pop the top on a fresh can and that delicious smell of grape fills the air, all your troubles seem to just melt away. Mist some Purple Stuff Grape Soda Scent to purge foul odors from your car, and relive the innocence and fun times of your youth.
