Capturing The Piña Colada Scent Was No Easy Feat

Fresh-made Piña Coladas smell and taste delicious when made with real ingredients. Chemical Guys master blenders spent months in the Caribbean gaining firsthand experience capturing the essence of fresh-cut pineapple and cracked coconut. These brave researchers dedicated up to 16 hours a day on the beach and by the pool, drinking cocktail after cocktail until they had the ideal scent thoroughly ingrained in their heads. Chemical Guys Piña Colada Air Freshener smells like the real thing because it is made with natural pineapple and coconut extracts. Cheap air fresheners are made with noxious chemicals that sting and burn the nostrils with sickly-sweet candy smells. Chemical Guys Piña Colada stimulates and soothes the senses with the crisp bite of tangy pineapple juice, and the mellow full-rounded body of coconut. The all-natural fruit extracts of Piña Colada Air Freshener replace foul odors with fresh ones, and make any room feel and smell fresher, cleaner, and more tropical than before.

Freshen Any Room

Chemical Guys air fresheners are more than scented perfumes: they are active odor eliminators. Piña Colada Air Freshener & Odor Eliminator replaces foul odors with the tropical scent of fresh pineapple and coconut, while specialty enzymes target and destroy odor-causing agents. Mold, mildew, germs, and rotting food pollute the air with bad smells that linger for weeks. Chemical Guys Piña Colada Air Freshener destroys odors at their source and leaves only the fresh scent of pineapple and coconut behind. And even after the natural fruit scents dissipate, the odor-causing maladies have been destroyed, so the space continues to smell fresh and clean. Purge foul odors from automobile air conditioning systems for fresh and clean air with Piña Colada air freshener. No automobile, home, or office needs to smell musty and stale ever again. Treat musty car interiors, gym locker rooms, pet beds, stuffy offices, or secluded bedrooms with Chemical Guys Piña Colada Air Freshener & Odor eliminator to restore purity and serenity to any space.
