

The Rear Spoiler is manufactured in the USA from high quality lightweight ABS (acrylonitrile butadiene styrene) for superior appearance, durability, wear and impact resistance. Designed and engineered for factory fit and finish, the Rear Spoiler looks like an OE stock component with aftermarket flare. The spoiler will require minimal sanding, primer and paint.

Easy installation is a hallmark of CDC components and the Rear Spoiler is no different. Installation can be done in just a few hours using basic hand tools.

