

ATTENTION

To prevent air leaks between the selector valve and the line, PAI recommends pulling very firmly on the line. The harder the line is pulled, the tighter the seal between the line tubing and the valve fitting will be.

There is minimal risk of damaging the part by following these instructions.

