

Warranty

All products have a One Year, Non-transferable Limited Warranty.

This One Year, Non-transferable Limited Warranty does not cover any product that is (1) installed incorrectly or (2) damaged by collisions, vandalism, accidents, or willful destruction. Quake LED, LLC ("Quake LED") warrants to the original retail consumer purchaser and no other purchaser or subsequent owner, that our product will be free from defects in material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the order date. For a period of one (1) year from the order date, at no charge to the purchaser, Quake LED will repair or replace the product(s) if it is determined by Quake LED to be defective. After the warranty period, the purchaser must pay all charges for parts and labor. The purchaser is responsible for all shipping costs for returning the product to Quake LED.

Coverage under this warranty is only valid within the Continental United States.

Quake LED does not warrant the installation of our product. Installation is the sole responsibility of the purchaser. It is recommended that all installation be done by a licensed professional. Improper installation may cause damage to the product and/or vehicle on which it is installed and may cause damage or injury to individuals. Quake LED's warranty does not cover any expenses incurred by removing products that are defective or by re-installing replacement products in their place. Quake LED does not provide purchasers with temporary replacement units during the warranty period or at any other time.

This Limited Warranty is non-transferable and will automatically terminate if the original retail consumer purchaser resells the product or transfers the vehicle on which the product is installed. The "original retail consumer purchaser" is the person who originally purchased the product directly from Quake LED or a gift recipient of a new product that is in its original packaging and unopened. It is the sole responsibility of the purchaser to present proof of purchase. We do our best to maintain records of all sales but cannot be held accountable for lost or missing records.
