

Table Of Contents

Acknowledgments

Introduction

Chapter 1: The Perfect Plan: The Recipe for Building a Period Correct Hot Rod

Finding the Right Rod

Tracing the History

Barn Find 1937 Ford

Old Car Hunter Gary Moore

Chapter 2: Period Power

Ford Flathead V-8

Cadillac Motors

1949–1964 Oldsmobile V-8

Ford Y-Block

1957–1966 Buick Nailhead

Chrysler Hemi

Pontiac Motors

Small-Block Chevrolet

W-Head Chevrolet

Oddball Stuff

In Summary

Chapter 3: Rolling Stock: Choosing Wheels, Tires and Accessories

Wire Wheels

Steel Wheels

Birth of the Mag Wheel

Mag Wheel Manufacturers

Hubcaps

Evolution of the Whitewal

Selecting The Right Vintage Tires

Other Visual Options

In Summary

Chapter 4: Building a Vintage Chassis

Boxing Plates

Motor Mounts and Brackets

Suspension Choices

Rear End Choices

Brake Choices

Steering Choices

A 1933 Plymouth Reconstruction Project

In Summary

Chapter 5: Interior: Real Hot Rods Have Upholstery

It's the Last Step

Fitting the Driver to the Car

Mounting Gauges and Switches

Carpeting

Seats

Upholstery

Dashboard

In Summary

Chapter 6: Body and Mods: Selecting the Right Sheet Metal for an Era

Body-Style Choices

Body Modifications

Fender Choices

Reproduction Bodies

Chapter 7: Choosing the Right Paint, Pattern, Texture and Finish

Choosing the Proper Finish

Lacquer Paints

Enamel Paints

Urethane Paints

Special Effects

Picking the Final Finish

Chapter 8: The Vintage Car Gallery

Reviving the Youngblood Roadster

The Class of '59

A+ for Flavor

Dream 1940

T-Time

The Shoaf Roadster

'40 Found

Chapter 9: Cool Old Parts

Source Guide